

Logic4Peace

fundraising online logic event for peace

April 22-23, 2022

Logicians participating in this conference stand united for peace.

Logic4Peace invites contributions in any area of logic, including:

- philosophical logic, philosophy of logic and history of logic;
- mathematical and computational logic;
- applied logic and logical structures used in science and the humanities.

All registration fees and donations will be spent on two specific causes: to help our colleagues in Ukraine in this time of war, who are either displaced or have lost their homes, and to support the charitable fund 'Voices of children' which provides humanitarian aid and assists with the on-going evacuation processes.
